

2016 WOMEN IN MINISTRY LEADERSHIP ALABASTER HOUSE LEGACY SCHOLARSHIPS

In alignment with our president's missional goals, the Alabaster House Legacy Scholarships are intended for women whose focus is on pre-service training for vocational ministry.

Scholarship applications will be accepted beginning February 1, 2016, and are due on or before May 1, 2016.

A total of six scholarships are available for the 2016 school year. Women currently pursuing higher education in preparation for ministry leadership are eligible for one of the following Alabaster House Legacy Scholarships:

Bible College Scholarship | Three $2,000 awards annually

The intent of this award is to empower women planning to enter a vocational ministry program leading to Foursquare credentials, providing funds for education in an accredited Foursquare Bible college.

Emerging Leader Scholarship | Two $500 awards annually

The intent of this award is to encourage the education of young women for vocational ministry through a Foursquare certified emerging leader network (ELN) program.

Ignite Scholarship | One $1,000 award annually

The intent of this award is to encourage the education of young women for vocational ministry through the Foursquare Ignite Academy.

NOTE: There is maximum lifetime award of up to $2,500.

Contact MRamos@foursquare.org for more information.

